GARLOW GUILTY.

Notorious Check Forger's Trial was a Short One.

THE EFFORTS IN HIS BEHALF

By Unknown Friends who Sent Letters to Judge Hugus and Prosecuting Attorney Howard were Unavailing—Evidence of Mr. Colvig was Conclusive, and Convicted the Man—Motion for a New Trial. Wind-up of the Criminal Court Term.

In the criminal court yesterday, Judge Hugus on the bench, the case of the state vs. W. C. Garlow was put on trial. One of the largest crowds of spectators of the term was present. Messrs. Dryden and Robinson represented the defendant and Prosecuting Attorney Howard conducted the prosecution. The jury was made up of the following: Thomas Bartley, Jr., J. O. Schenck, J. E. Smith, J. E. Webster, Samuel Moore, Hermann Clause, Benjamin Gooding, Henry Kern, W. J. Welsh, Charles Bryson and W. S. Coleman.

The state abandoned the first count in the indictment and introduced testimony showing conclusively that Garlow had forged checks and had swindled a number of merchants out of goods, offering in payment bogus checks, the bulk of which were drawn on the Cameron bank. Mr. M. L. Colvig was the strongest witness for the state and testified that he recognized Garlow as the man who swindled him.

When Garlow was put on the stand he attempted to show that he was not the forger, but that he was another man who looked like him. There was no other witness for the defense and consequently the trial was a short one. At 5:15 p. m., the case was given to the jury and fifteen minutes later they filed in the court room and amid breathless silence rendered their verdict of guilty as charged in the indictment. As Garlow was commanded to stand up and hear the judgment of the jury he turned pale and trembled perceptibly as he fingered his mustache nervously.

Attorney Robinson objected to the verdict. In that it declared Garlow guilty as charged in the indictment, which is made up of five counts, and called attention to the fact that the first had been dropped. The court over-ruled his objection and after the jury had been polled they were dismissed for the term. The usual motion for a new trial was made and will be argued this morning at 9 o'clock.

This is the last case that will be tried in the criminal court this term and after the wind up of business, Judge Hugus will adjourn the court until the fall term.

No Through Train.

A through passenger service connecting Wheeling and Cleveland would not be profitable, Baltimore & Ohio railroad officials state. By the new agreement between the Baltimore & Ohio, and the Wheeling & Lake Erie, both roads are given direct connections between the two points named, says the Cleveland Leader. The former road is privileged to transport its traffic over the Wheeling & Lake Erie from Valley Junction to Wheeling, and the Wheeling & Lake Erie is allowed the use of the Baltimore & Ohio from Valley Junction into Cleveland. A few years ago the Baltimore & Ohio ran a train from Cleveland to Wheeling without charge, but the service was soon abandoned. Baltimore & Ohio officials said yesterday that they did not believe any radical changes would be made in the passenger end of the business. Both companies will exert every energy to improve and develop freight traffic.

THE HUB CLOTHIERS AND FURNISHERS.

SACRIFICES

IN FACT,

Not on paper—sacrifices of fair profit and actual costs, not of inflated prices and fictitious figurings. These special sales of ours are born—not of choice—but of necessity. They are offerings of our own regular stock—not of the dregs of the market bought for the express purpose of jolting 'em out under the guise of honest reductions. For us this is a period of money losing—not money making. It is to be a sharp, decisive sale, that will lower the too high piles and the too large lots of MEN'S SUITS—so let the loss be all at once and quickly over with it.

ON THE ONE HAND

You have the unrestricted choice of hundreds of Men's Summer Suits that bear our label—that show the unmistakable signs of their superior make.

DOZENS ARE MARKED $15.
DOZENS ARE MARKED $13.
DOZENS ARE MARKED $12.

And the marked price is the worth price—the price that they've been selling at all during the season—with our guarantee still behind them. They're yours for

ON THE OTHER HAND

You have the same free and generous choice of hundreds of Men's Suits that had the conditions of the weather been different would never have been food for such an uncompromising reduction.

DOZENS THAT WERE $10.
DOZENS THAT WERE $11.

With the original ticket still on them—and our guarantee still, inspiring your satisfaction to the full measure of their worth. They are yours for $9.98. $7.65.

An honest sale—like this—has a purpose. When it's attained it will stop—must stop—because every day—every hour—every minute means loss. If 'twas like those cankerous pests on honest merchandising it might continue interminably—as they seem to be doing—fed by the worthless and miserable stock picked up anywhere and everywhere. We cut to the very bone that the agony may be short lived. Come this week—come early. Our guarantee is always your money back. In our BOYS' DEPARTMENT a dollar will almost do the work of two.
